

ČSOB Good Will Card

- The Good Will Card is an exclusive debit card providing a broad range of services.
- This unique card is designated for the clients of ČSOB Private Banking with the Private Account and the annual amount of payments by card with merchants of more than CZK 300,000*.
- When using the Good Will Card to pay to merchants, an amount of 0.6% of each transaction goes to charity. Thus, you contribute to beneficial projects by every payment.
- You can also support the projects from your funds.

How does the card work?

The Good Will Card is a contactless payment card Mastercard® World Elite that enables to remit 0.6% of each payment made to a merchant to charity. You may also contribute by using the card from your own funds. Just choose one of the options at the branch (0.3%, 0.5% or 0.8%) and the contribution to charity will be charged to the account associated with the card.

We will together use these funds to support selected charity projects which we will inform you about on our website.

What will you gain with the card?

- Extraordinary Good Will Card travel insurance for you and your family members.
- Card loss or theft insurance.
- Legal expenses insurance.
- Mastercard® benefits, including the Priceless Prague programme membership.
- LoungeKey membership – admission to more than 1,100 airport VIP lounges all around the world. You are entitled to 4 free admissions to lounges all around the world in the course of the year.
- ATM withdrawals abroad free of charge.
- Possible card digitisation in Apple Pay, Google Pay or Garmin Pay.

The Good Will Card is unique in the Czech market

No bank issues a debit card that would automatically remit a portion of each transaction for charity purposes, while enabling to contribute more from the card holder's own funds. This makes the Good Will Card unique in the card business segment.

*) If the client does not meet this turnover amount, the bank is entitled to change the card type.
